At 9:08 a.m., Court reconvenes with both County Attorney's, all Defense Counsel and Defendant present, outside the presence of the Jury Panel.

Court conducts a sealed portion of today's proceedings.

Counsel for Defendant, Sears, informs the Court, he received a letter that [REDACTED] has been stayed until completion of this trial.

Counsel would also like an update as to one of the jury members bringing a laptop into the jury room and believes a record needs to be made.

Court will address the Jury Panel as to the admonition.

Counsel for Defendant, Sears, noticed a juror over the lunch break walking hand in hand with another person whom he believes may be the spouse and has also noticed that person was also present in the Courtroom viewing the proceedings. Counsel believes it may be an issue if the spouse is able to hear and view things which are the Jury Panel is not a part of.

Court received a request by Counsel for State to be allowed to take exhibit 2901 (CD of Chevron Gas Station video). Counsel for Defendant has no objection. IT IS ORDERED allowing Counsel for State to take exhibit 2901 today during the lunch break and to return the exhibit by Friday at 12:00 p.m.

Court proceeds with an un-sealed portion of today's hearing.
